

AS FOR ME AND MY HOUSE

Intro

D#m A#m D#m A#m G#

Verse 1

D#m

Wealth and riches, fame and fortune, empty vanities

A#m

Ease and comfort, love of money, lull the heart to sleep

D#m

Confidence in gold and silver, false security

A#m G#

Sets the stage for lawlessness, the great idolatry

D#m

Those who trust in mammon, taking refuge in a lie

A#m

Gain the whole world now, but in the end they lose their life

G#

So the folly of this evil age, we leave it all behind

A#m G#

We resolve to know nothing but Messiah crucified

Chorus

A#m F# C# G#

As for me and my house, we will boast in the cross

A#m F# C# G#

What was once to our gain, now we count it as loss

A#m F# C# G#

Well-fed or in want, we are Yours come what may

A#m F# C# G# A#m F# C#

In life or in death, glorify the Lamb that was slain

G# A#m F# C#

The Lamb that was slain

Verse 2

D#m

Clever talk, deceitful scheming, lust for human praise

A#m

Empty chatter void of power leads the flocks astray

D#m

A house of hay and stubble is the wisdom of this age

A#m G#

Never gonna' make it through the fire of that Day

D#m

Well the man who loves is known by God, but knowledge fills with pride

AS FOR ME AND MY HOUSE

A#m

The foolishness of God shines brighter than the sage's light

D#m

So though the Greek may look for wisdom and the Jew look for a sign

A#m

G#

We resolve to know nothing but Messiah crucified

Chorus repeat
